HOTEL GUESTS

for the pocket books, he seized a whisk broom which he stuffed into his hip pocket. He did not notice his mistake until he reached the sidewalk. With a yell, he bounded back up the steps and rescued his money. The damage in the Donoff grocery and bakery will amount to $1,000 to $1,500, according to an estimate made Monday afternoon. Insurance amounting to $4,000 is carried on the stock and fixtures.

Meidenberg's dry good store will suffer practically a total loss from smoke and water. It suffered more than any other of the tenants because of the perishable nature of the merchandise. Mr. Meidenberg was not at the store Monday afternoon.

Cora Spillman, milliner, occupying the corner room, suffered a small loss from smoke. The insurance carried covers the loss.

Some damage was done in the barber shop but the loss was nominal. The damage in the rooms of the hotel was entirely from smoke and is not great.

BADLY BRUISED
IN ELEVATOR AT HOTEL WARDEN.

An accident that might have resulted in death and in which A. O. Millicie, bookkeeper at the Warden Hotel had a miraculous escape from serious, if not fatal injuries, occurred in the hotel office Monday morning at 11:20 o'clock.

Mr. Millicie had gone to an upper floor in the elevator, operating it himself, and in descending shut it off, as he supposed, when he reached the office and stepped from the cage. The power, however, had not been properly turned off and as Mr. Millicie stepped out, the top caught him across the right shoulder and bore him to the floor, the iron work at the top of the door resting across his shoulder. The weight of the man's body was sufficient to stop the elevator, although the iron work was bent in doing so.

One of the hotel bellboys crawled through the opening and allowed the car to raise so that the imprisoned man could be released. He was taken to an upstairs room and Dr. D. M. Smith was called, and upon examination, found that no bones were broken, although the upper part of the body was badly bruised and Mr. Millicie was suffering from the shock. He will be confined to the house for several days and is to be congratulated his fortunate escape from more serious injuries.

WRIT DENIED IN
LEO FRANK'S CASE
BY JUDGE NEWMAN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 21.—Federal Judge Newman today declined to grant a certificate stating that in his opinion there was "probable cause" for an appeal to the United States Supreme court in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted by Leo M. Frank, convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan. Judge Newman denied application for a writ Saturday morning. The story of the Frank case written by C. P. Connolly appears on page 7 of this edition.

German Report
Of Capture of Important Hill

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Dec. 21.—(By wireless to London.)—The German war office this afternoon gave out an official statement as follows:

"The French attacks yesterday at Nieuport, Belgium were repulsed. Between Richebourg l'Avoue and the Canal de Labasse we attacked the positions of the Anglo-Indian troops, stormed and captured their trenches and dislodged them from their positions with heavy losses. We captured one piece of artillery, five machine guns, two mine throwers and 270 Anglo-Indians, including ten officers. The trenches were lost to the enemy December 18 near Notre Dame de Lorette have been captured.

"In the neighborhood of Souhain, to the northwest of Chalons, French troops yesterday delivered a fierce attack. In one place they penetrated our outer trenches but their attack broke under our fire. They left four officers and 310 men in our hands and a large number of dead French troops were left on the ground in front of our position.

"In the Argonne we captured an important wooded hill at Le Four de Paris, three machine guns, one revolver gun and 275 prisoners. "The fierce French attacks to the northwest of Verdun have failed completely. The great activity shown by the French along our entire front has been explained by an army order dated Dec. 17 and signed by General Joffre, commander in chief of the French troops which was found on a French officer. This order reads as follows:

"During three months the enemy has made numerous fierce attacks without being able to break through our line. Everywhere he has been victoriously repulsed. The moment has now arrived for us to make use of the weakness which he has shown. After having reinforced ourselves with men and material, the hour of attack has arrived. We kept the German forces in check, and it is now our business to clear the fatherland of the invaders.

"Soldiers! More than ever before France relies upon your courage and your desire to conquer at any cost. You already have been victorious on the Marne and on the Yser, at Ypres, in Lorraine and in the Vosges. You will know how to conquer until the final triumph.

"In the eastern arena of the war the situation in West Prussia remains unchanged.

"In Poland we continued our attacks against the position of the enemy."

"Let us see that the small have also suffered from the follies of the great—La Fontaine."

DEMOCRATS WILL CONTINUE PRESS
BUREAU 2 YEARS.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 21.—Continuance of the Democratic press bureau for the next two years was assured when the Democratic state central and executive committee met here today. They made plans for financing the bureau without great difficulty, it was said. The management and control caused much discussion among committee members before the meeting, however, and considerable disagreement over this question was in prospect. Plans for calling referendum elections on any laws which the Republican legislature may pass repealing any law passed during the last two years by the Democrats also were discussed.

HOLIDAY MATINEE.

A delightful program of Christmas carols and legends was presented Saturday afternoon at the Trinity parish house, by Mrs. Charles White of Granville, for the ladies of the Monday Talks and the Review clubs and their friends.

Mrs. White gave a number of legends in her charming manner with Christmas carols of many lands. She was assisted by Mrs. Jacob Rohrer, soprano; Mrs. Clarence D. Coons, contralto; Mr. Ralph Morrow, tenor; Mr. Karl Ashton, bass; Mrs. W. W. Davis at the piano, and a chorus of the following young people:

Ralph Allen, Lydia Bachenstoss, Walter Davis, Eleanor Johnson, Martha Grace Miller, Helen Vogelmeier, Elizabeth East, Martha Bell, Lavie, Frances Sprague, Dorothy Shitzer, Beatrice Stevenson, Dorothy Montgomery, Cornelia Ellis, Frank Graham, Roy Sells, John Hart, Roward Legge, Esther Graef, Dorothy Glenn, Janice Thompson, Marilyn Fleming, Olive Black, Charlotte Marvin and Eugene Hamlin.

High Praise.
Kate Douglas Wiggin's choicest possession, she says, is a letter which she once received from the superintendent of a home for the feeble-minded. He spoke in glowing terms of the pleasure with which the "inmates" had read her little book, "Marm Lisa," and ended thus superbly:

"In fact, madam, I think I may safely say that you are the favorite author of the feeble-minded!"—Wiggin's Home Companion.

Complete.
"Was your Christmas present in the nature of a surprise?"
"I should say so. It was just what I wanted."—Judge.

Part of Loot Is Recovered but
$4500 Missing

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cincinnati, Dec. 21.—Two elements of mystery remain in connection with the robberies and death of bandit Frank C. Hohl. One has to do with the missing $4,500 and the other with the mysterious disappearance of the revolver of Patrolman Knaul, who was killed by the bandit. A one-armed man was seen to pick up the revolver, but as yet he has not been found. The missing $4,500, according to general belief, was sent by mail to Louisville from postoffice Station V on Vine street, opposite the place where the bandit secreted most of his plunder. Postoffice inspectors are hard at work trying to trace the package which was mailed first class.

Eight thousand one hundred and sixty dollars of the $12,600 was recovered by detectives here late Saturday. The remaining $4,500 is believed to have been mailed by Hohl to P. C. Wright, Louisville, Ky. All efforts to locate this package of money has so far proven unavailing.

IN UNITED STATES COURT.
Headquarters Officer Charles Hager and Patrolman James Gorman were called to Columbus, Monday morning, to testify in the United States district court in the case of the government against several Chinamen arrested here on a charge of evading the immigration laws. The officers took part in the arrest of the men, in company with a United States immigration inspector. The arrests occurred last spring.

FIRES OF HELL
MAY BURN HERE
IN MEN'S SOULS

At the Fifth St. Baptist church, last night before a fine audience, Dr. Charles H. Stull delivered the third of the series on "Present Day Religion, in his sermon "A Man in Hell and the Laughing Critics." It was said to be one of the strongest arguments heard on the subject. He dwelt upon the laughing critics objections and trivial questions. How could a spirit burn? How could an immortal soul be consumed? Who is refined by teaching? Why doesn't Jesus ask Abraham to lift him out of hell? Why would not the presence of hell convict God of cruelty? Well, people do burn in both soul and body, said the speaker. People here on earth suffer torments of the damned, in fearful fires of revenge, jealousy, greed, remorse and disgrace. You don't like the thought of disease, and you hate murder, but both are facts just the same. The speaker held that people went away from God and heaven thru their own volition, just as naturally as smoke goes up and a stone comes down. If people love darkness rather than light it would be unmitigated wickedness to force them into heaven where all is light. Heaven is and could be nothing else than hell itself.

Homeless and Without Work, Russian Makes Home In Dark Cave Near Black Hand Rock

A hunt for a Pittsburg man, whose relatives are anxious to locate, took the Newark police into the wilds of eastern Leaning county, Saturday afternoon, where they found John Morris, 52, a Russian, who had taken up habitation in one of the numerous caves in the vicinity of Black Hand Rock.

Morris had been in the cave eight days, with no food except a few potatoes, which he dug from the rubbish on the city dump here more than a week ago; a can of salt pork, and some bread which he begged from farm houses in the vicinity.

The man was unkempt and dirty. His hair was matted in long strands and a ragged growth of whiskers covered his face, giving him the appearance of a real "wild man."

People living in the vicinity had seen the man occasionally and railroad men frequently saw the man standing in the entrance of his dwelling place. He never permitted a very close inspection, a stranger's approach being excuse enough for him to dodge back into the dark recesses of his cavern.

The police had received information of his presence in the cave and as circular letters had been received from Pittsburg advising officers to be on the lookout for Anthony Morris, who had been from an attendant in Pittsburg, December 10.

SLEET STORM VISITS CITY SUNDAY NIGHT

Sunday night and early Monday were bad times for pedestrians, for the rain and sleet which fell Sunday evening, freezing almost as fast as it came down, made it very bad under foot and the sidewalks and roads presented a glassy appearance that were anything but inviting.

It began raining about 8 o'clock and the temperature also fell about 20 degrees with the result that the water soon froze and many a pedestrian received a hard bump when he found that he was unable to cope with the weather conditions.

The Ohio Electric kept cars running all night to keep the trolley wires free from ice. The interurban schedule was maintained Monday and steam roads were also able to bring in their trains on time.

The telephone companies were fortunate in that no bad breaks occurred and the trouble shooters were not rushed any more than usual. This fact is due to the extra good cable used by the companies all over the city. Only in one instance were subscribers inconvenienced and that was when an electric wire fell across a telephone cable.

About 1 o'clock Monday morning the commercial lights went out due to a break caused by the storm, but the trouble was remedied in a few hours, so that the lights were on shortly after 4 o'clock. The weatherman promises us colder weather to-night and fair Tuesday.

MANY ARE INJURED IN CINCINNATI ON THE ICEY SIDEWALKS.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Cincinnati, Dec. 21.—Many persons were injured, some seriously, as a result of the icy conditions of the streets and pavements in all parts of the city last night and today. Sleet that fell last night left ice which made travel extremely dangerous. Street car service was badly crippled in the early hours of the morning, but as the day advanced conditions improved.

French Report Progress Along All the Lines

GAINS, THOUGH SLIGHT, ARE RECORDED BETWEEN THE LYS AND AISNE.

And in Belgium—German Trenches Demolished by Allies' Artillery.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Paris, Dec. 21.—Progress along the line is claimed in the French official statement given out in Paris this afternoon. There is not one single mention of a German success, or a French repulse.

Gains, although slight, are recorded in Belgium between the Lys and the Argonne, in the champagne country and in the Argonne. At one point an advance of 1200 yards is reported and at another the French made 500 yards.

Progress has been made between the Argonne and the Meuse on the right bank of the Meuse, and on the heights of the Meuse.

The French heavy artillery is described as having been successful on the Aisne near Reims and elsewhere. The text of the official communication follows:

"The day of December 20 brought nothing of importance in Belgium, if exception is made of some progress in the region of Lombaertzyde and St. Georges, and at a point to the southeast of the Inn of Kortaker, which is southeast of Bixchoote; the occupation of some houses in Warletem, south of Zillebeke, and the bombardment by the enemy of the Ypres hospital.

"Between the Lys and the Aisne, we have occupied a forest near the route between Noulette and Souchez, and we also took possession of all the first line of German trenches between this highway and the first houses of Notre Dame de Lorella, southwest of Loos.

"The enemy has bombarded Arras. Our heavy artillery silenced on repeated occasions the artillery of the enemy to the north of Carnoy, which is to the east of Albert. This artillery also demolished the German trenches and sent head-over-heels two cannon of a battery established near Com. which is to the southeast of Carnoy. The heavy artillery also secured distinct advantages on the Aisne and in the Sector of Reims.

"In Champagne in the region of Prosenes, Perthes and Beausejour as well as in the Argonne, we made along our entire front perceptible advances. This is particularly so to the northeast of Beausejour, where we won and occupied 1200 yards of the enemy's trenches. In the forest of Lagurrie we blew up four mined traps and we established ourselves in the positions thus made.

"Between the Argonne and the Meuse there has been progress along all the front, particularly in the region of Varennes where the Brook of Chappes has been left 500 yards in our rear, and in the region of Gerout Bethincourt.

"On the right bank of the Meuse we have gained ground at Lacroupe; at a point two kilometres northeast of Brabant and in the forest of Convoys.

"Finally on the heights of the Meuse we have made slight progress in the Forest des Chavalliers to the northeast of the Fort of Coron."

BIRTHDAY

CELEBRATION OF KING GEORGE'S MOTHER HAS BEEN POSTPONED INDEFINITELY.

Kaiser and His Wife Had Been Invited to Attend As Guests of Honor.

[Associated Press Correspondence]
London, Dec. 7.—Plans of King George for a great celebration of the seventieth birthday of his mother, Queen Alexandra, were entirely set aside this year, on account of the war and she spent the day quietly.

Among the guests who had been invited to attend the festivities planned were Emperor William and the empress. In connection with the queen's birthday it was recalled by many that the marriage of Queen Alexandra was the first ceremonial function which the emperor ever was allowed to attend. He then was a small and fidgety boy of four years. During the ceremony, his uncles, the Dukes of Connaught and Edinburgh, posted themselves on either side of him to keep him quiet. When presently he began to shuffle his feet, the two uncles administered a warning nudge. Whereupon, according to Bishop Wilberforce, who witnessed the incident, the boy knelt down and bit both uncles in the calves "so savagely that they had much ado to keep from crying out."

It has been her majesty's custom for many years to spend her birthday at her Sandringham home surrounded by her family. Usually, too, her daughter, Queen Maud of Norway, has extended her English visit until after the birthday. But this year, owing to the state of public affairs, Queen Alexandra remained at Marlborough House, London, for the day, while Queen Maud's customary visit was abandoned entirely. Members of the royal family and a Danish diplomat were the only persons she received.

Queen Alexandra still is active in public affairs. She is a firm believer in outdoor exercise and whenever morning weather is favorable she may be seen strolling through her gardens with her favorite dogs. She makes it a rule to go through her voluminous correspondence in person, and she continues to exercise the closest personal control over her household and its expenses. She passes several hours in this business every day, going through the accounts as they reach General Sir Dighton Probyn, V. C., the comptroller of her household.

She is the head of the Red Cross society of England, and has devoted much time to the raising of funds for the support of this work. She follows the labors of the nurses at the front with the closest interest, and is preparing to send each of them at Christmas a small personal gift.

Since the commencement of the war Queen Alexandra has followed the course of events closely. She is kept fully informed of all that is transpiring on land and sea. The king communicates in person any messages he thinks might prove a shock to her. A recent instance of this was the death of Lord Roberts.

Queen Alexandra was born on December 1, 1844, the eldest daughter of the late King Christian IX. of Denmark. She married the late King Edward VII. while he was Prince of Wales, on March 10, 1861, and has been a widow since May 6, 1910.

Woman Seeks New Trial for Custody of Lad

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Cincinnati, Dec. 21.—Attorney Louis Sawyer, representing Mrs. Dora Funk Guinen, who on last Friday was denied a writ of habeas corpus through which she sought to gain possession of Louis Kraft, Jr., made a motion for a new trial of the case in the common pleas court today. Sawyer claims that Judge Gorman made errors during the trial in permitting Mrs. Plymouth Weeks to testify to certain things and in refusing to permit Mrs. Guinen to testify regarding points that she wished to bring out. Judge Gorman probably will hear arguments on the motion next Saturday.

Judge Gorman in his decision Friday did not pass on the question as to whether Mrs. Guinen or Mrs. Weeks was the mother of Louis, but said he would leave him with Mrs. Weeks because she had furnished the boy a proper home.

NEWARK MEN ARE INTERESTED IN FLORIDA LANDS.

The Naples Improvement Company has issued a fine booklet filled with half tone cuts of views and scenes adjacent to the hotel at Naples, on the Gulf, as well as showing a number of pictures of the interior and exterior of the hotel itself. The latter is undergoing extensive improvements, a wing containing forty rooms being added and all the other rooms being overhauled and redecorated. The property is situated in Lee county, Florida, was formerly known as the Halderman estate, comprises a tract of ten thousand acres, including Naples, and is being developed by the Naples Improvement Company of which E. W. Crayton, formerly of this city is president and James K. Hamill of this city treasurer. The hotel opened for the season, Dec. 1 and is proving one of the most popular summer resorts in the south.

RACING RULES FOR NEXT YEAR MAY BE CHANGED.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Cleveland, Dec. 21.—One important matter is expected to come before the rules committee of the Grand Circuit meeting here this morning, the perpetuating of the "allowance system." This system, given a trial during the 1914 season, allows the trotter that fails to win in his first start one second allowance on his second start. If a horse loses four races in succession he may be given four seconds allowance but after that if he keeps on losing he will receive no greater allowance. The rules committee is said to be in favor of the retention of this rule.

No other matter of importance is expected to come up. The rules committee will report to the annual meeting of grand circuit stewards in Detroit January 12.

Advertising.

All advertising helps a business, but not all advertising is equally profitable. If once in a while a merchant inserts a business notice that does not seem to give the returns it should, may this newspaper make a suggestion?

That is, that the advertiser, instead of deciding on-hand that advertising does not pay, should come to the newspaper office, or send for the newspaper man to come and see him, and together that they should study the disappointing insertion.

Every newspaper man is something of an advertising specialist. He has seen many kinds of advertising tricks tried out. He has his own theories, which may or may not be sound, but they are based on very considerable experience.

The chances are ten to one that the advertisement either claimed too much, or that it was too indefinite. If you merely say your goods are the best in town, and offer no facts or figures to back it up, you do not use the space to the best advantage.

Leo Frank's Case.

Does Leo M. Frank, the young Jew, college graduate and factory superintendent deserve the sentence of death under which he rests at Atlanta, Georgia?

If he killed the young girl who was found in the basement of his pencil factory, the punishment decreed by the court is none too severe, but in the minds of a great many unprejudiced people there is more than a reasonable doubt of Frank's guilt and this belief will be intensified by the perusal of Mr. C. P. Connolly's articles in last week's and this week's Collier's.

Mr. Connolly is a trained lawyer, a former prosecutor who is thoroughly familiar with criminal procedure. He was sent to Atlanta with a single object—to get the facts. He went with an open mind and a keen intellect. For weeks he investigated the Frank case and now says without qualification that the conviction followed an unfair trial and was brought about by the mob spirit.

Col. Watterson's Guess.

The Louisville Courier-Journal, Colonel Henry Watterson's newspaper, thinks that Myron T. Herrick will be the Republican nominee for President in 1920 but not two years hence. The colonel expects to see Justice Hughes, former governor of New York head the ticket in 1916. This is the language the colonel uses.

The crazy, dear old lack-me-up beating about for an issue, and finding none, will probably fall back upon the impressive respectability of Mr. Justice Hughes, and, willy-nilly, put him up for it (the Republican party) pull itself together by 1916. Even if it did, it could hardly beat Woodrow Wilson. The President may not be to the average Congressman quite a thing of beauty and a joy forever. He has rejected too many of them to a pulp. But, as Presidents go, he stands mightily well with the country; a very up-to-date, middling intelligent, devilish safe man!

Coming Great Wars.

It seems to be flat heresy to think that this will be the last great war. The Pittsburgh Dispatch, it is much more correct to regard it as the first great war. So at least, the Nation is instructed by the Navy, the newest of the militarist organs, which has for its special function the enlargement of our navy, which, if the contending nations whack away at each other with sufficient enterprise may automatically become the biggest of the world.

It is not necessary to follow the sensible logic that leads to this conclusion, since the real reason for the conviction is evident. If governments would substitute peace and arbitration for the decision by force, then there would be no more overgrown naval appropriations and appropriations like the Navy would have no cause for existence. Rather than tamely submit to extinction that paper is clearly certain that the worst inflicted in Europe today will sink into comparative insignificance when future historians compile statistics of coming conflicts among the nations of the earth.

It is hardly worth while to combat this assertion. The Dispatch's belief that this will be the close of the great wars is founded on the economic certainty that if it continues as is promised till one side or the other is completely defeated, the world will be so poor that it can carry on no more such conflicts. A pursuit of militarism so disinterested that naval officers would not have money enough to subscribe for the navy might modify its certainty of the continuance of great wars.

Why Corn Has Sunk.
A Potato Hill man who is 67 years old never knew until this summer that for every grain on an ear of corn there is a silk running out to the end, to light and moisture. German Bombardment.
The bombardment of several towns on the east coast of England by a squadron of four German cruisers may or may not be important in a military sense. Spectacular and daring it certainly is. Important it will prove to be only if it shall be revealed as part of a concerted movement by the whole German fleet either to seek engagement with the British fleet or to cover an invasion of British soil. If the descent on the Yorkshire coast be simply a raid designed to offset the effect of Admiral Sturdee's victory the value of it to the Germans will be small; if it be a feint or a covering operation designed to distract attention from a general movement by the German fleet, it marks the beginning of one of the most important phases of the world war.—Brooklyn Eagle.

ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM

Cleary, town clerk of Haverstraw, and Democratic leader in Rockland county, was acquitted by a jury in supreme court here Saturday of the charge of murder in the first degree on which he was tried for the killing of Eugene M. Newman, his son-in-law. Announcement of the verdict was the signal for a demonstration by Cleary's friends who had remained in the court room while the jury was deliberating.

RAILROADS WILL ATTEMPT REPEAL OF TWO-CENT FARES.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 21.—The first public move of railroads of the state in a prospective campaign for repeal of the two-cent fare law was taken today when passenger agents of all roads operating in Ohio arranged with the public utilities commission for a conference on the subject to be held tomorrow.

It was said at the office of the commission today railroad officials will wage a publicity campaign to create public sentiment favoring granting a higher passenger fare. The legislature may be asked to repeal the law passed in 1906 establishing two cents a mile as the maximum passenger fare within Ohio.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Cleveland, Ohio, December 20.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn preached here today in the I. B. S. A. Temple.

As usual, he had a large audience and an attentive one. As usual, also, his discourse was out of the ordinary line. He took for his text the message of the angel at Jesus' birth: "Fear not, for, behold, I bring you Good Tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people." (Luke 2:10.) He said in part:

"This prophecy has not been fulfilled as yet. Instead of peace and good will to men, we have war, savagery and other works of the flesh and of the Devil mentioned by St. Paul—anger, malice, hatred, envy, strife. Not only have the prayers for peace not been heeded, but instead the war spirit is kindling and spreading from nation to nation, fulfilling the prediction of the Bible—enveloping the world of mankind. The bitterness, hatred, ferocity, of the warring nations seems to increase daily. Magnified tides of ferocity are believed, and arouse corresponding bitterness and ferocity on either side. As we understand the Scriptures, the turmoil is only beginning—most of the wailing and gnashing of teeth, most of the anguish and despair, suffering, sorrow and devastation, are ahead of us. With the cessation of the war the Bible seems to predict the most gigantic revolution ever known and, following rapidly, a reign of lawlessness, anarchy, producing 'a Time of Trouble such as never was since there was a nation.'—Daniel 12:1.

Added to the physical distresses of the world, financial troubles impend in the midst of plenty. With every reason for prosperity the wheels of commerce are slow. The explanation given is loss of confidence—grit; but not so. The world's financiers and merchant princes are as courageous as ever, but they have met with new conditions. The wealth of the world, once represented in money, is now represented in collateral, stocks and bonds. The war has made a demand for gold, unsettling values of collaterals.

Gold is disappearing—becoming more valuable hourly. In the same proportion collaterals, stocks and bonds, become less valuable hourly; because of their plethora they are a drug on the financial market. The great insurance companies, the banks and all wealthy people have their reserve investments in these "securities." Additionally, the heavy losses of life in this war will be a serious financial blow to insurance companies. It is reasonably estimated that the fall of British bonds to one-half par has already made insolvent all the insurance companies of Great Britain. What must we expect as the war progresses toward anarchy?

As with every war, pestilential diseases must be expected, while interference with agriculture threatens famine in various parts. This is not an over-drawn picture, but a sober look behind the scenes.

The One Ray of Hope.

"Hope thou in God!" In the midst of all these tribulations the world must learn more and more, until all know the lesson by heart, that earth's only hope is in God. This is one of the great lessons which God wishes all mankind to learn! For centuries men have boasted of what could and what could not be done—of the world's financial institutions, insurance associations, scientific learning and general common sense. These, we were assured, were a part of an evolutionary system which some time in the future would make man so wise, so great, so efficient, that there would be no more wars, no more dyings, no more trouble. We were reputed to be approaching that grand climax.

Some of the "Peace! Peace!" sermons of even a year ago seem laughably foolish today. The great and the wise deserted the Bible as a foolish old book written up by those who were merely emerging from monkey condition. They must yet learn the lesson recorded twenty-five centuries ago, namely, that the wisdom of their wise men has perished. (Isa. 29:14.) They must learn that the wisdom of men is foolishness with God, even as the Wisdom of God is foolishness with men.

By the time all shall have learned where to look for help in this great trouble, God's time will have come for giving the aid which He has provided for long centuries ago and promised in the Bible. The aid which God has provided is Messiah's Kingdom. Many have prayed, "Thy Kingdom come, who have failed to study the Message of the Kingdom. Many have thought that it had already come. Many are laughed that because in the past God has not exercised power and force in dealing with humanity therefore He will not do so in the future. The Bible, however, assures us that Messiah's Kingdom will be a forcible one. He will rule the nations "with a rod of iron." As a vessel of a potter "they shall be broken to shivers."

We have reached this time. It is the breaking and shattering processes foretold that, now beginning, are causing this Time of Trouble, which before it ends will be the greatest trouble ever known. The shaking, as we have already shown, will be social, political, financial and religious. The creeds, representing the monstrous fallacies engrafted upon the teachings of the Bible in the Dark Ages, will be shaken to pieces, and all the great institutions misnamed "churches" will be shaken with them. Only the one True Church will stand—not the Church of England, not the Church of Rome, not the Church of Germany, not the Church of Russia, but the Church of God. It will include all saintly followers of Jesus of every nation and denomination; and it will exclude all others.

"Peace on Earth"—Very Soon.

How glorious the hope that Messiah's Kingdom, backed by Divine power, will speedily set the world's affairs in order, bringing peace out of confusion, war, strife! Human strength weakened, human pride humbled into the dust, human hopes dashed, the world will be ready for the New Day—the New Era. The Bible beautifully pictures it as the rising of the Sun of Righteousness with healing in His beams—scattering the darkness, ignorance, superstition, sin, death, that have caused the night of sorrow never to be forgotten.

The Lord's people, awake and looking in the right direction, already perceive that we are in the dawning of the Millennium—that the blessings which have come to the world during the past forty years are Millennial blessings, foregleams of still greater favors soon to be poured out. These Millennial blessings have not brought proper responses in human hearts. Instead of gratitude, the spirit of selfishness has begotten discontent, covetousness, which will shortly eventuate, as the Bible tells, with every man's hand against his neighbor and against his brother.—Ezekiel 38:21; Zechariah 8:10.

"I Came Not to Send Peace."

But do the Scriptures contradict themselves? What did the Great Teacher mean when He declared, "I came not to send peace on the earth, but a sword?" (Matthew 10:34.) He referred prophetically to the effect which His gracious Message of love and favor would produce in the world during the reign of Sin. He well knew that the Prince of Darkness would oppose all of His followers, as well as Himself. It was foretold that whosoever would live godly would suffer persecution; and so it has been. Eighteen centuries have proven it!

Our Lord sent forth His followers unarmed, like Himself, to be peace-makers, to be helpers, to "follow peace with all men and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." He counseled His followers, "He that taketh the sword shall perish by the sword." But their message of peace and love and the coming Kingdom which shall bless the whole world and fulfill the angelic prophecy of our text—these things seemed to anger the world—not merely the vicious, the ungodly, but the worldly professors of godliness who have schemes, plans and theories of their own to work out, which are contrary to the Gospel Message. The darkness, more or less mixed with selfishness, hateth the light. The Truth, the Love of God, neither cometh to the light, lest its deed of darkness, selfishness, selfish ambition and hypocrisy be made manifest.

The Master knew what the effects of His Gospel Message would be in the world; and that only those who would compromise His Message could possibly live at peace—that all who would be loyal and faithful to Him would be traduced, slandered, persecuted—"beheaded," literally or figuratively. His words, therefore, were a prophecy respecting the tribulations which all His faithful would surely have.

But more than this, His words were a prophecy respecting the nations. What is it that has brought us to our present degree of civilized savagery? What is it that makes of every business corporation a bloodcurdler, seeking the destruction of every competing financial craft? What is it that has sharpened the wits of humanity to such an extent that the majority find it difficult to be honest, because they see so many opportunities for dishonesty, while it is impossible for law-makers to make new laws with sufficient rapidity to keep pace with the intelligent methods of circumvention?

The doctrines of Christ are in a certain sense responsible for all this. The liberty wherewith Christ makes free His followers and the light which He and they let shine upon a darkened world, received into unsanctified hearts and minds, have given wisdom which, misapplied, we call cunning and craft. The proof of what we say is found in the fact that other nations than those which have received this reflected light of Christianity are still quite in the backward. Only now, as Christian civilization in a perverted form is reaching those peoples, are they awakening and becoming competitors with so-called Christendom.

The Desire of All Nations Coming.

Notwithstanding the eighteen centuries of delay, our text as a prophecy will surely be fulfilled by and through the One whom the angels announced and whose birth is very generally celebrated at this season. Many have gotten the wrong impression—that our text is a prophecy of a war on business ful warfare for eighteen centuries against Satan, sin and death. But from the Great Teacher's own lips we learn that His Kingdom is not of this Age—it belongs to the Age to come. The ruler of this world has been Satan, the Master declared. The dominion of earth was given to man, but Satan, deceiving our race, putting darkness for light, has become the real ruler, using humanity merely as his tools. Scripturally he is styled "the god of this world," and "the Prince of this world," or Age.

Perplexed and confused, many may ask, What, then, is the hope of the fulfillment of our text? We answer that our Master, who declared that He was not the Prince of this Age, declared also that His Kingdom will be introduced with power and great glory; and that, although its initial manifestation will be with clouds, darkness, and a Time of Trouble such as never before has been, nevertheless His Reign will be glorious, triumphant and eternal. "He shall reign until He hath put all enemies under His feet."

Immanuel's victory means the overthrow of sin—the crushing of the Serpent's head. At the very beginning of the glorious Reign of Messiah Satan shall be bound, and following its close he shall be destroyed in the Second Death, together with all those who love unrighteousness, after they shall have had full opportunity for recovery from the snares of Sin and Death. Then, indeed, the whole world will proclaim the glory of God.

The Great Restorer of All.

The Great King, who died, the Just for the unjust, eighteen centuries ago, that He might, judicially, bring mankind back into harmony with God, is to be the Great Restorer of all that was lost in Adam; and He will make all things new.—Revelation 21:5.

Everything appertaining to this great Plan of Salvation outlined in the Word of God is reasonable. The crucial testing of the elect Church is necessary in order that, as faithful and merciful priests of God and of Christ, associated with Him in His kingly glory, they may be God's instrumentality in securing mankind from the fallen conditions which have resulted from six thousand years of sin and from the malignant influence of the Prince of Darkness. The thousand years which the Bible stipulates as the period of Messiah's Reign is a period neither too long nor too short in which to accomplish the world's salvation.

Some one may say, If it has required eighteen centuries for the development of the Church, how much more time will be necessary for the uplifting of the world? But, we answer, it is not the Divine Purpose to uplift the world to spirit nature and glory, but rather to restitution blessings and conditions. It is because of the high exaltation offered to the Church that such crucial testings of sacrificial obedience even unto death is required. With the Prince of Darkness bound and with the Sun of Righteousness rising with healing in its beams, the darkness of sin, crime and sorrow will soon flee away.

One century of such blessed influence upon the world will surely work wonders, bringing in also inventions, blessings and comforts as yet undreamed. Next will come the gradual awakening of all who have fallen asleep in death. They will come forth from the prison-house of death, as the Scriptures declare; they will come forth that they may be made acquainted with the true God, with His glorious Son, our Redeemer, and with the principles of righteousness in contrast with the principles of sin.

We cannot suppose that it will require the majority of men, under these conditions, to sit long counting the value of the blessings of everlasting life and restitution proffered them. The upward move, resurrection, uplifting, regeneration, will go rapidly on; while, meantime, generation after generation will come forth from the tomb and enjoy similar experiences. Finally all will have come forth; for the Love of God made this provision through the death of our Redeemer, who delighted to do the Father's will and who has already been rewarded gloriously with high exaltation to the Divine plane of glory, honor and immortality.

"Good Will Amongst Men."

The attainment of the condition of good will amongst men will mean the attainment of human perfection. God is Love; and when our first parents were created an earthly image of God, love must have been the predominant quality of their characters. What we see of selfishness is largely a matter of heredity, and all of life's customs are in line with it, and continually increasing its hold upon us. But with the new King and the new Reign of Righteousness will come the glorious uplifting and transformation. Gradually, during the thousand years of Messiah's dominion of the world, the evils of selfishness will be made apparent, and the beauties of holiness and love will be shown in contrast.

Restitution rewards will lift all the willing and obedient out of sin and selfishness to holiness and love. Then, with love as the very essence of man's being, good will towards men will everywhere prevail; for the Divine Law, almost effaced through the reign of Sin, will be rewritten in the human constitution. That Law, as we know, is, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy strength; and thy neighbor as thyself."

Finally, dear friends, how glad we are that this is true! How glad we are that the terrible falsehoods piled on on us during the Dark Ages respecting a God of hatred and a Hell of everlasting torture are not true! Messiah's Kingdom will be a Kingdom of Peace, notwithstanding the fact that it will be ushered in by a Time of Trouble.

Narrow Escape Of Physician At Crossing

Dr. P. H. Cosner, while driving his machine late Saturday night, was caught in the gates at the railroad crossing in Union street. It was about 12:20 and the doctor was making a call. The gates were dropped for an approaching train and the first one hit the top of the machine and the doctor put the machine to full speed, crashing into the second gate, demolishing it and badly damaging the machine. The fast approaching train just missed hitting the machine.

SHIPBUILDERS JUST AS BUSY AS IF NO WAR

(Correspondence Associated Press.)
London, Dec. 21.—The various ship-building yards are as busy as though there was no war. The loss of many ships, due to being bottled up or sunk, made freight rates high, creating an increased demand for new tonnage, as well as hastened repairs on old or captured craft. The repairing yards are full with orders and new steamers are not being guaranteed for early delivery owing to pressure of work.

A suggestion has been made by the Newcastle Chamber of Commerce and its committee that some of the Austrian and German steamers now tied up in British harbors should be employed to make the present shortage of tonnage. Merchants, especially in the coal trade, are suffering inconvenience through this shortage, which was caused partly by their vessels being requisitioned by the government and partly by delays and congestion at foreign ports. It is said the admiralty is seriously considering the proposal.

Cross-Petition.

In the divorce case of Frank Queen vs. Ida Queen, the defendant has filed a cross petition denying plaintiff's allegations. She charges that plaintiff left home on December 11, 1914, and since that time has failed to provide for her. She asks that the plaintiff's action be dismissed and awarded reasonable alimony.

TERRIBLE SPELLS ON GOING TO BED

But Nerv-Worth Overcame the Nervousness of Tenth Street Resident.

"When I read of a friend of mine taking Nerv-Worth I bought a bottle of it and now I can truthfully say it has made a new woman of me. I had terrible screaming spells on going to bed and a terrible nervousness and now these have disappeared."

These were the words of Mrs. Barbara Prazier living at No. 33 Tenth street, Newark, who added that an operation which she had undergone seven years before had left her a nervous wreck. Observe that one bottle of Nerv-Worth made her a "new woman."

T. J. Evans, the druggist, sells Nerv-Worth and will cheerfully refund the purchase price ($1.00) if it doesn't make good.

Mob Frenzy Convicted Frank Who Is Condemned to Death

Politics, Prejudice and Passion at Heart of Atlanta Case Collier's Investigator Declares—Facts Point to Frank's Innocence—Unclaimed Reward—A Graphic Story Told By Mr. Connolly.

The Frank case at Atlanta, Georgia, is without a parallel. Leo M. Frank, a young Jew, factory manager and Cornell College graduate, stands convicted of having murdered Mary Phagan, one of his employees, and has been sentenced to hang in January.

Many who closely followed the case during the 30 day trial are firmly convinced that there is at least reasonable doubt of Frank's guilt, the trial judge himself having expressed his doubt.

The jury's verdict was but the echo of the clamor of the crowd. Mr. C. P. Connolly, who has had long experience as a practicing lawyer and prosecuting attorney, the man who represented Collier's Weekly at the trial of Haywood and Pettibone in Idaho and at the trial of the McNamaras in Los Angeles, has just completed several weeks' study of the Frank case. He has examined every bit of evidence; has interviewed all parties concerned both for the prosecution and the defense and at the conclusion of his long investigation Mr. Connolly declares that Leo Frank is innocent of the crime for which he is condemned to die.

Mr. Connolly went to Atlanta to get the facts. He went with an open mind, without prejudice and with a single purpose—to get the truth. He finds that Frank did not have a fair trial; that his conviction was the result of popular passion which demanded a victim and that all the facts point not to Frank's guilt but to his innocence and to the negro Conley as the murderer of Mary Phagan.

An Associated Press Telegram to the Advocate on Saturday announced that the application for a writ of habeas corpus in the Frank case had been denied but it is probable that the matter will go to the supreme court once more.

Mr. Connolly's picture of the Frank trial is graphically painted. He says:

Saturday, April 26, 1913, a holiday. Mary Phagan went from her home in Atlanta to the National Pencil Factory at which she worked, to get some pay still owing her. She did not return to her home. A search was instituted, without success. At 3:30 o'clock the following morning her dead body was accidentally discovered in the basement of the pencil factory by the night watchman, whose duty it was to make the rounds of the building.

Two men were immediately arrested. One was Leo Frank, the Superintendent of the factory, who admitted having paid the girl her wages in his office at noon on Saturday. The other was Newt Lee, night watchman, who had discovered the body. Alongside Mary Phagan's body were found two illiterate notes in pencil, purporting to have been written by the victim, and stating that the deed had been done by "a long, tall, sleek, black negro."

The notes were manifestly a clumsy invention of the murderer to divert suspicion. It soon became apparent that the night watchman was not the guilty person. Suspicion fastened on Frank and rapidly intensified. During the next three or four days the police, the newspapers, and practically the entire population of Atlanta came to the conclusion that Frank was the guilty person.

Then a third man a negro named Jim Conley, who also worked in the factory, but who was not known to have been in the factory at the time of the murder, was accidentally discovered washing a stained shirt. He was arrested and held as a suspect, but suspicion was not seriously directed toward him. The stained shirt was returned to him by the police, and his name was practically eliminated until three weeks later, when it was discovered that he could write. He had previously denied he could write.

Still later it was discovered and admitted by Conley that he had been in the factory at the time of the murder. When the fact that he could write was pressed upon him he told in succession four different formal stories, each of which was taken down by the police. On the trial he told a fifth different story.

His first story was that he had not been at the factory at all. His second story, in which he still maintained that he was not at the factory on the day of the murder, ad-claimed that Frank was a degenerate. No defendant in a criminal case in Georgia may give testimony under oath in his own behalf, nor is his wife allowed to testify either for or against him, but he may make a statement not under oath to the jury. His own lawyers are not allowed to ask him any questions, and the prosecutor never asks any, for he fears the answers of a witness not subject to the penalties of perjury.

When Frank had concluded his four-hour statement to the jury the crowd in the courtroom, though mostly antagonistic to him, was deeply moved. It was one of those moments so rarely experienced of an audience absolutely spellbound. Moisture was in the eyes of some of the jurors.

"The statement," said one newspaper which all along has been antagonistic to Frank, "carried the ring of truth in every sentence, and scores in the room whose minds hadn't been made up left the courtroom convinced of the man's innocence."

During one of the day's of intense excitement in vogue throughout the trial, as Frank was being taken from the courthouse to the jail, the crowd wedged threateningly about the automobile. Sheriff Wheeler Mangum, an outspoken believer in Frank's innocence, hurriedly told Frank to get under cover behind him.

"I am an old man," said this brave Confederate veteran, "and you are young. If they 'get' you it will be over my dead body."

Frank has been twice sentenced to die, the last time on his birthday. When on that last occasion he was asked if he had anything to say, he made a remarkable statement. As showing its effect even in cold print, United States Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, told me before I went to Atlanta that it so gripped him at the time that he was half inclined to take a train and go to Atlanta for the purpose of learning more about the case. Speaker Champ Clark gushed it in his infrequent scrapbook as a rare gem. He declared it one of the most remarkable and convincing statements he had ever read. When Frank had concluded this statement there was hardly a dry eye in the courtroom, according to many witnesses.

Some may say that thousands of men in Europe are being sacrificed in a senseless war, and that, after all, the fate of Frank is no worse than that of others who must suffer in this world of injustice and mistakes. Indeed, The Macon (Ga.) Daily Telegraph of March 26 last, speaking of the Frank case, said editorially:

"If a mistake is made involving a single human life it would be deplorable, but it is better that such a mistake should be made than that our legal system should be brought into disrepute."

A Georgia jury dominated by one of its members, once returned a verdict that shocked the world's sense. Chief Justice Thomas J. Sigmmons of Georgia, in the court over which he then presided as a trial judge, immediately ordered the verdict set aside with the remark that "it takes at least thirteen men in Georgia to deprive a man of his property." And yet here is a man about to be deprived of his life on the verdict of twelve jurors, without the consent of the conscience of the judge who heard the testimony.

Under a constitutional amendment adopted in 1906 the Supreme Court of Georgia is not allowed to reverse any capital case where no error of law has been committed in the trial, no matter how weak the evidence may be, and cannot investigate or pass upon the question of guilt or innocence. Two of the Supreme court judges were for reversing the case on alleged errors of law, but four voted to sustain the conviction.

While Frank's trial was pending and just before the jury retired for deliberation, Judge L. S. Roan, who presided, held a consultation on the bench, and in the presence of the jury, with the chief of police of Atlanta, and with the colonel of the Fifth Georgia regiment, to decide on the best means of protecting Frank in case of his acquittal by the jury. This Fifth regiment was kept under arms throughout the night. Before delivering his charge to the jury, Judge Roan also called the lawyers into another room and advised that neither Frank nor his counsel be present when the verdict of the jury was rendered, for fear that if Frank were acquitted the mob would hang both him and his lawyers.

While the prosecuting attorney was making his concluding argument in the case, the newspaper editors of Atlanta joined in a petition to the presiding judge to adjourn the case over for a day, "because," as the Atlanta Journal said: "It was known that a verdict of acquittal would cause a riot."

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat
Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Bride's Jewels Returned and Reward Given

Finder Is Asked No Questions, and
Incident of Losing $50,000
Worth of Gems Is Closed.

Associated Press Telegram
New York, Dec. 21.—The $50,000 worth of jewels lost here recently by a Chicago bride, have been returned, the advertised reward of $2000 has been paid, no questions were asked, and the incident is closed, according to announcement made today by the manager of a hotel where the couple was staying. Their identity still remains secret, the only new clue being the statement that they motored here from Chicago on their honeymoon trip.

Although no questions were asked of the finder of the jewels the information was volunteered that the bride dropped the jewel case as she entered her automobile upon leaving the theatre, and that the finder picked up the case containing the jewels, read of the advertisement, and then returned them.

The reason why the couple declined to make public their identity it was said at the hotel, was that they did not want to give their relatives an opportunity to scold them for carelessness.

DIRECT ROUTE TO SIBERIA THROUGH THE PANAMA CANAL

Associated Press Telegram
Washington, Dec. 21.—Direct steamship service between New York and Vladivostok, Siberia, by way of the Panama Canal already begun and two steamers already have passed through the canal with cargoes of general manufactured goods and merchandise. The new line is 10,100 miles long, but is 3,000 miles shorter than the route from New York to Vladivostok by way of the Suez canal. Consequently a ten knot vessel saves 12 1-2 days at sea.

The beginning of a new trade between Peru and England by way of the canal is indicated in the passage through the waterway of two steamships laden with raw sugar, the first shipments through the canal of whole cargoes to Peru.

The Panama canal authorities have announced the cable address "Isthmian, Belbo Heights," as sufficient for any cable messages concerning steamship business with the Isthmian. Likewise the address "Isthmian Washington" is announced as sufficient to secure the proper delivery of messages to the canal office in this city.

In deference to protests from shipping interests, the canal authorities have decided to waive the requirement that vessels furnish copies of their manifest when passing through the canal.

The practice of the Suez canal requiring only a general statement of cargo will be followed.

LONDON THEATRES TO OPEN DURING CHRISTMAS SEASON

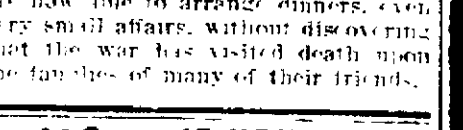

Associated Press Correspondence
London, Dec. 12.—In spite of the gloom which hangs over London at night and the general depression as a result of the war, the more important London theatres will offer their Christmas pantomimes as usual, taking the position that the children must not be robbed of their holiday treat because of the war.

Cinderella, Jack and the Beanstalk, Sleeping Beauty and a number of favorites and fancies of childhood are to be revived at Christmas time with the same brilliancy as in past years.

Hotels which have not attempted to have dancing since the opening of the war have also announced that they will resume weekly Saturday evening dances in an effort to throw off the gloom which is settling over England.

Mourning is rapidly displacing color in London streets and shop windows are filled with black hats. Belgian and French visitors are nearly all in mourning and few London hostesses are now able to arrange dinners, even very small affairs, without discovering that the war has visited death upon the families of many of their friends.

FIGHT ON FOR NATION WIDE PROHIBITION

CAPTAIN HOBSON AND OTHER LEADERS LINING UP THEIR FORCES IN CONGRESS.

Issue Is Expected to Overshadow All Other Business Coming Up This Week.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Dec. 21.—Representative Hobson of Alabama, and other supporters of national prohibition were actively at work today lining up their forces for tomorrow's encounter in the house when the rule to take up the Hobson resolution for submission to the states, of a constitutional amendment for nationwide prohibition will be voted upon. This issue overshadows all other questions before congress during the week.

It was generally believed that the rule would be adopted as a majority vote only is necessary. The rules provide for eight hours of debate after which the resolution is to be voted on. Indications are that the discussion will be spirited. Administration leaders in the house predict that the prohibition resolution will be defeated. A two-thirds vote of the house would be necessary to secure its adoption. In case the resolution is defeated, Senator Sheppard of Texas, later on in the senate will make an effort to get action on a similar resolution which he introduced afterwards on a special rule for a woman's suffrage constitutional amendment, but the administration leaders today predicted that there would be no opportunity to take up the question until after the holidays.

PRESIDENT WILL HAVE CONFERENCE ON WATERWAYS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Dec. 21.—In congressional circles today the outcome of a conference at the White House tonight between President Wilson, members of his cabinet and Senator Newlands regarding the Newlands proposal for the creation of a commission to control federal activity in waterway improvements, was being awaited with interest. Upon its result depends whether or not the administration shall seek action at this session of congress on the plan for such a commission.

Those who had been invited to discuss with the president the advisability of throwing the influence of the administration behind the proposal included in addition to Mr. Newlands, Secretaries Lane, Redfield, Houston and Garrison. The cabinet members were to outline to the conference the results of an inquiry conducted by them, at the request of the president, into Senator Newlands' plan for abolishing the present method of making river and harbor appropriations. President Wilson already has approved the Newlands plan in principle, and Chairman Sparkman, of the house rivers and harbors committee, is understood to favor the idea.

It is expected that an effort will be made to secure the adoption of an amendment to the rivers and harbors bill now pending in the house to provide for the creation of the proposed commission. Senator Newlands has announced his intention of insisting upon action when the measure reaches the senate.

KANSAS SOCIETY FAD.

The latest fad in society is the tub cure. In this the patient arises just as the crisp air of the morning is mellowed by the first sunbeam. An ordinary washtub is then filled with hot water and soap suds, into which various articles of linen are thrown. After they are thoroughly saturated the patient takes them up one at a time and rubs them briskly up and down on a washboard placed in the tub. This is kept up until the hands, arms and face are glowing pink. The patient then goes into the open air and hangs all the linen articles on a line stretched for that purpose. The one completing the task first announces the time to the others over the telephone and is entitled to a prize. It is exciting sport and also invigorating exercise.—Troy (Kansas) Chief.

After all, an optimist is merely any fellow who thinks it might have been worse.

Don't call names. Tell a cop he is a lobster and you are apt to get pinched.

ESCAPED BATTLES, KILLED BY FALL OF COAL IN MINE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Pittsburgh, Dec. 21.—After emerging unscathed from a number of battles while serving under the Russian colors, Joseph Kaminski deserter, made a perilous trip to a seaport, boarded a steamer as a stowaway, and came to America, only to meet death three days after arriving here. Kaminski was employed at a coal-chute and was killed yesterday when he fell and was buried under tons of coal.

JANUARY 10th IS REPENTANCE DAY IN GERMAN ARMY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Amsterdam (via London), Dec. 21.—The newspaper, Nieuwe Rotterdamse Courant, learns from Cologne that the archbishops and bishops of Germany have ordered that January 10 be kept as a general repentance day by the Catholics in the army. The priests in the field are charged to encourage the soldiers to participate as much as possible.

Time is money, and some people act as though they had mighty little of either.

He Will Be Forgotten.
"A lot of backsliders" in the "middle-of-the-road" movement returned to the fold this morning," our political religious editor mused out loud this morning. He then started "hot" on the trail of a "fire story," as the daily met with a reception that made the atmosphere in the office too "warm" for him.

He will possibly be confined there for a period of two weeks or more and it is the hope of his many local friends that the operation will be entirely successful, and that he will soon be restored to his usual good health.

Committee Election.
E. M. Baugher was elected chairman and William Wulfoop was named secretary of the executive committee of the board of trade at a meeting held Friday night. Mr. Wulfoop was also made secretary of the board of trade. The executive committee is composed of Messrs. E. M. Baugher, W. M. Morgan, C. L. H. Long, G. B. Sprague and Julius Luch. Messrs. A. A. Stasel, W. C. Metz and W. M. Morgan were appointed as a committee to nominate candidates for the election of officers.

Children Recover.
The two children of Mrs. Siroski of German street who were found by the police in a home on that street recovered from the effects of the liquor administered by the woman in whose care they were left. The attending physician, Dr. Shirer, said the children were also suffering from the effects of the gas fumes which had filled the room.

Fighters Fined.
Two young men charged with fighting were arrested by Officer Buehler Saturday night. They drew fines of $5 and costs each for being drunk and one drew an additional fine of $5 and costs for fighting. A half dozen other drunks drew nominal fines.

Splendid Booklet.
There has just been issued by Father B. M. O'Bryan an interesting pamphlet entitled, "Pebbles and Brambles." It contains twenty-three pages filled with good things of the reverend gentleman's selection. In a note he says: "Pebbles and Brambles" was published in The Builder and Chronicle, August and November issues, under that title, with the addition, 'from the den of the assistant editor.' As a matter of fact the den was a room at St. Stanislaus Retreat, where it was written while the priests of our diocese were there on retreat.

Five Draft Horses.
Mr. L. C. Blizard, a prominent horse dealer of this city, sold last Saturday at private sale to the Ohio State University a pair of steel-gray draft horses which are probably the best pair of this breed in the county. They are five and six years old and were purchased by the Ohio State University to be used in demonstrating the correct type to the outstrapping students. In all probability, they will also be used for show ring purposes in the future.

Mr. Blizard has been unusually active of late in his line of business, as he furnished Smith Bros. with a carload of cavalry horses, which were above the average in that they were all excellent types for cavalry purposes.

PRESIDENT WILL ASK SENATE TO RECONSIDER ACT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Dec. 21.—President Wilson, it was understood at the White House today, believes the senate should reconsider its action in including a clause in its ratification of the safety at sea convention, which advocates of the convention believe practically nullifies it. It is expected that the question will be brought up in the senate this week.

Secretary Bryan today reported to the president on a conference with Secretary Redfield, Chairman Alexander of the house merchant marine committee, and Commissioner Chamberlain, at which it was felt that the senate should reconsider its action.

Advocates of the convention do not believe the other nation which signed it will agree to the senate's reservation that the United States shall have the right to make further safety regulations and impose them on foreign ships coming into American territorial waters.

Size doesn't count for everything. Many a big man acts mighty small.

GENEROUS GIFT IS RECEIVED BY ELK COMMITTEE

The Licking County Creamery has informed the Elk Christmas Cheer committee that it will send enough cheese to furnish one-half pound for each basket given by the Elks to the worthy poor families of the city. Considering the fact that over 200 baskets will be filled, the generosity of the Licking Creamery company is appreciated.

Other firms of merchants desiring to contribute to the Christmas Cheer are invited to call up the steward of the club or Dr. J. D. Lewis, chairman of the committee. The baskets will be filled at the James Jones room, West Church street, between Fourth and Third, and those who have volunteered the use of automobiles will kindly report there at 1 o'clock prompt, Thursday afternoon, regardless of weather conditions.

The change in the place of assembling the provisions was made necessary on account of Mr. Sprague renting his room to other parties.

Mr. Jones, always an enthusiastic Elk, came to the rescue and kindly volunteered his room, which adjoins the Chinese laundry on the north side of West Church street.

SALE OF YANKEES WILL BE MADE IN NEW YORK TODAY

Colonel Jacob Ruppert, Jr., and Captain T. L. Houston, the prospective purchasers, had arranged for a conference with Ban B. Johnson, president of the league.

Mr. Johnson denied the existence of a deadlock in the deal, and said he was certain that the club would be sold.

"There are so many details, however, that time is required to shape things up," President Johnson said. "Colonel Ruppert's first choice for a manager proved impossible. We are working on the subject of a manager."

DEATH CLAIMS J. G. GRIFFITH, OLD ENGINEER

Following an illness of several weeks of bronchial trouble, John Geo. Griffith, 80, retired, Pennsylvania railroad engineer, died Sunday night at his home, Fourth and Holiday streets. His death was not unexpected. His death marks the passing of one of the older railroad men of the city who saw many years of service in the Pennsylvania company.

He was born in New York State, June 13, 1835 and came to this city with his parents at an early age. He soon took up railroading, abandoning it temporarily to serve in the Union army during the war of the rebellion. He was a member of Co. E, 12th regiment, O. V. I., which was one of the first to respond to the call for volunteers. This regiment served until discharged in 1864 when many of the soldiers re-enlisted. It was engaged in the campaigns both offensive and defensive in the vicinity of Washington.

He was a brother of Joseph Griffith, former city marshal and chief of police. Griffith Anderson is a grandson.

He leaves a widow but no children. Arrangement for the funeral has not been made.

ANOTHER TRIBUTE TO COL. C. H. KIBLER FROM ARKANSAS

Marion Chrisman, president of the 76th regimental association is in receipt of the following letter from Major General J. R. Gibbon, of Arkansas Division U. C. V. regarding the death of the late Col. Chas. H. Kibler:

Banate, Ark., Dec. 17, 1914.
Mr. Marion Chrisman,
Newark Ohio.
My dear Friend and Comrade:

I thank you very much for a copy of the Newark Daily Advocate informing me of the death of my greatly esteemed comrade Col. Chas. H. Kibler.

I am deeply grieved to know that this good man has passed away, and that I shall be deprived of the pleasure of seeing him when we go to Columbus next spring to return the flag.

At meeting with him in Jackson, Ark., and correspondence since has caused me to form a very high opinion of him, and I was in hopes he would live many years longer as a bright example to the people of his community of what a life lived right means. Col. Kibler met the duties of life without ever turning aside or compromising, and illustrates to the highest degree a true citizenship. I mourn with you the loss of a comrade.

May good health and prosperity abound with you, and wishing to meet you in Columbus in the spring, at the return of the flag—at which time we wish also to decorate the grave of Col. Kibler, I am,

Your friend and comrade,
J. R. GIBBON, Maj. Gen.,
Arkansas Division U. C. V.

OHIO'S HUNTING TOLL.
Columbus, Dec. 21.—The hunting season in Ohio came to a close Saturday night. Eleven dead and nine wounded was the total official toll of the rabbit and squirrel hunting season in the state. Trapping of skunk, fox and raccoon is not affected by the close of the season on smaller game.
